To Whom It May Concern:

It is my pleasure to write a recommendation letter on behalf of Kevin Hull. I am a lead clinician at Children's Study Home latency aged residential program. I came to know Kevin as a BSW intern; he completed his internship from September 2015 to May 2016 at Children's Study Home – Family Center. During this internship Kevin worked with parents and their families who have been referred by Department of Children and Families for services. Kevin met with parents to strengthen their parenting skills through parent education classes. In addition, he had the opportunity to facilitate groups and supervise parent child visits.

During Kevin's internship he proved to be dependable, eager to learn and willing to take initiative. Much of the work Kevin did with these families was in their homes. Kevin had to become acquainted with the geographical area and feel comfortable with meeting the families in their element. However, Kevin did this with grace and confidence. He was always willing to ask for help or for clarification when needed.

Kevin was an asset to the Children's Study Home. He is a very determined individual who I believe will be an outstanding, successful and responsible social worker.
