

Young Teens- Week of remembering and memoires
Facilitator: Kevin Hull

Opening- Question Basketball

1. Table Place holder

2. Small book

- Person that died
- You and the person that died
- One thing you want to tell them
- One memory with them during the holidays

3. Garbage in and Garbage out

Closing- Reverse telephone and word of the week

Do you have regrets or sadness that you could not say goodbye?

Are you angry how they died?

Are you angry that they died?

If you could go back what would you do differently?

What are your plans for the upcoming holidays?

Talk about a past holiday with the person that died.

Do you think that drugs and alcohol are a bad choices?

If you could go back what would you say to the person that died?

Share a happy holiday story that involves the person that died.

Share a sad holiday story that involves the person that died.

If you could give another gift to the person who died, what would you give?

How meaningful were the cars and flowers from friends at the time of the death and funeral?

Describe how your attitude and/or success in school have been affected by the death?

Do you feel that relationships with friends or family has changed since the death?

What do you feel when you think of the upcoming holidays without the person that has died?